Boston Marathon Winner Starts in

Probably 900 long-distance runners ill go in quest of the many prizes will go in quest of the many prizes in the Victory Loan modified marathon which is to be run through the streets of the city from Washington Heights to the finish at the City Hall this afternoon. The distance of the contest measures approximately ten and onehalf miles, with the field of runmers being sent on their way from McNamara and Partner will witness the struggle of speed among the runners from start to finish.

While the out-of-town runners will be almost a negligible quantity in numbers, they are certain to furnish stiff competition for Charles Pores, Willie Kyronen, Aaron Morris, Peter Trivitoudis, Casper Scheffer, John Costello, Arthur Craw and Harry Spies, who compose the strongest of the runners from this city. A contingent of four athletes from Boston will make their presence felt, as each competed in the recent American championship in the Hub.

The invading group is headed by Carl A. Linder, winner of the Ashland-to-Boston race on last April 19, and his other mates of the Murza Hurza, of Quincy, Mass, who arrived here last night, were Joe Tuemiesky, James William Kanto. Another Hub runner who reached here last night was Jimmy Henigan, who is well known to all local athletes. Henigan reports himself in splendid ehape and confident of being a contender for first honors from the starting gunshot.

hole. This hole is 199 yards long and uphill, with a deep trap in front of the green.

Playing a full spoon in the rain and fickered into the cup. This was the third one of his carcer.

McNamara and Hollender won the match, with McNamara having a 72, which is a remarkably fine score at Siwanoy under the weather conditions of wind and rain. The best bail of the four was 65. McNamara is now playing fine golf and will undoubtedly be a strong contender at the open championships in June. He still holds the Brae Burn record.

The visitors started the seventh with a safe wallop, but a double play opportunely killed off that threat. Rodgers drove out a double in the eighth, but died on base and the mountaineers never threatened again.

Rutgers got two men on in the third, fourth and eighth, but the needful bingle was never forthcoming to score them. Taliaferro drove out a triple, with two down, in the sixth, but there was nobody on the bags and Rice fanned.

When the game went to extra innings, Captain Weller was shifted from short to do mound duty for Rutgers and he retired the three men who faced him on six pitched balls, fanning the last man. Van Orden replaced Weller at short and Leahy was put in centre field just in time to make a beautiful running catch of Nefflin's drive.
